

Batch of manuscripts from the Main Manuscript Collection now available online

20 new manuscripts from the Main Manuscript Collection are now digitized, indexed and available on duchas.ie. The material relates to the late 1930s and early 1940s.

There are 3 diaries in this batch: by Seosamh Ó Dálaigh and Tadhg Ó Murchadha. Full time collectors had the duty of keeping a diary to provide contextual information about recording sessions, the informants and the work in general. These diaries are part of the Main Collection and they provide a valuable insight into life at the time. Storytellers and others mentioned in the diaries have been tagged.

Amongst the manuscripts, there is new material from the following counties: Antrim, Armagh, Carlow, Cavan, Clare, Cork, Donegal, Dublin, Galway, Kerry, Kilkenny, Kildare, Laois, Limerick, Longford, Mayo, Meath, Monaghan, Offaly, Roscommon, Tipperary, Waterford, Westmeath, Wexford and Wicklow.

These manuscripts contain a wide variety of material, including stories, lore, prayers, songs, superstitions and many other subjects.

All of this material can be found at www.duchas.ie/en/cbe.

Below is a list of the manuscripts, collectors and places.

Editor's note:

The Main Manuscript Collection is being digitized by the duchas.ie team, and material from it is published quarterly. This collection consists of 2,400 manuscripts linked to material that was collected from 1932 onwards. This material was mostly collected by fulltime and part-time collectors under the umbrella of the Irish Folklore Commission (1935-1971). About two thirds of this material that encompasses every aspect of the oral tradition of Ireland is in Irish.

Dúchas.ie is the result of a partnership established in 2012 between the National Folklore Collection in UCD, the UCD Digital Library, and Gaois, Fiontar & Scoil na Gaeilge, DCU. The aim of this project is to digitize and make available online to the public all collections of the National Folklore Collection. The project is co-funded by the Department of Tourism, Culture, Arts, Gaeltacht, Sport and Media with support from the National Lottery, and by University College Dublin with financial assistance from the Irish Folklore Foundation.
